AddTON DAO Phase 1 Success

AddTON DAO has successfully completed its first ecosystem development cycle by delivering every major milestone it committed to the community. We have successfully launched.

Arbiex AI

Advanced AI Trading Platform designed for maximum yield generation.

TON Staking

Robust TON Staking Platform offering secure and stable rewards.

Gram Chain

The foundational Gram Chain Blockchain network deployment.

Gram Coin (GCC)

Native GCC token launch alongside the broader Grampe Ecosystem.

Grampe

A multi-utility digital wallet platform designed for Indian users to manage payments.

SUCCESS

Next Phase of its long-term roadmap.

The upcoming Stellar GCC Agentic Server Program represents one of the most significant initiatives in the ecosystem. It combines the speed and reliability of the Stellar (XLM) blockchain with the growing Gram Chain (GCC) ecosystem, creating a hybrid infrastructure focused on liquidity, digital asset growth, AI-powered trading, and community participation.

About Stellar (XLM)

Stellar is one of the world's leading open-source Layer-1 blockchain networks, designed for fast, low-cost, and secure financial transactions.

 Lightning-fast transaction settlement (typically 2–5 seconds).

 Extremely low network transaction fees.

 Highly energy-efficient consensus protocol.

 Enterprise-grade security and proven reliability.

 Global payment infrastructure.

 Native support for tokenization and digital assets.

Trusted by businesses, fintech companies, and developers worldwide. The native cryptocurrency of the Stellar network is Lumens (XLM), which powers transactions, asset transfers, and network operations.

About Gram Coin (GCC).

Gram Coin (GCC) is the native digital asset of the Gram Chain Blockchain, developed as a key utility token within the AddTON ecosystem.

GCC is designed to support long-term ecosystem growth through liquidity expansion, community participation, and utility across various decentralized applications

- Liquidity ecosystem participation
- Community reward distribution
- Ecosystem utility token
- Future blockchain application integration
- Payment utility within supported ecosystem services

As the Gram Chain ecosystem expands, GCC is expected to play a central role across future products and blockchain-based services

Stellar GCC Agentic Server Program

The Stellar GCC Agentic Server Program is a hybrid model designed to strengthen both the Stellar and Gram Chain ecosystems while creating sustainable participation opportunities.

XLM Spot Holding

Strategic accumulation and holding of Stellar (XLM) to support asset backing.

Liquidity Support

Deepening liquidity for Gram Coin (GCC) to ensure stable ecosystem growth.

AI Futures Trading

AI-Based Futures & Options trading strategies to generate sustainable yield.

Blockchain Education

Community Reward Distribution via comprehensive Academic Packages.

Package Fund Distribution

50%

Futures and Options Trading: Utilized to generate trading income and fund other package-related returns

Allocation Breakdown

- ▶ 10% – PancakeSwap Liquidity: Deployed to provide liquidity for Gram coin.
- ▶ 20% – XLM Coin Hold: Held securely within the user's ID, with the exact amount calculated based on the market price on the purchase date.
- ▶ 20% – Backup Fund: Kept securely in reserve.
- ▶ 10% – Admin charge is applied to the package price

XLM Holding Expiration: Once the user reaches target "2X", the 20% XLM holding balance will automatically become zero.

Income Distribution: All subsequent trading incomes and additional package benefits are distributed from this core structure.
